Army ROTC

Wed. & Thurs., Feb. 12-13

3300 Poinsett Hwy • Greenville, South Carolina 29683 • 864-567-1772

Website: <https://www.furman.edu/academics/military-science/>

Contact: CJ Murphy, Scholarship Officer

E-mail: Cmurphy7@furman.edu

Job Types: Full-Time Positions, Graduate School Programs, Part-Time Jobs, Summer Jobs

Majors Recruited: All Majors

Opportunities: The Army ROTC (Reserve Officers' Training Corps) summer programs offer cadets a variety of training opportunities designed to enhance leadership skills, tactical knowledge, and physical endurance. These programs are typically open to college students enrolled in ROTC and can vary in structure and location.

Below are some key summer training programs associated with Army ROTC:

1. Cadet Summer Training (CST) Location: Fort Knox, Kentucky

Description: CST is the largest training event for Army ROTC cadets and takes place over the summer. It's typically divided into two main components:

Advanced Camp: A 35-day event designed to assess cadets' leadership abilities in a field environment. It includes tactical exercises, land navigation, weapons training, physical fitness assessments, and leadership evaluations.

Basic Camp: A four-week program for students who join ROTC later in their college careers or for those interested in getting an initial taste of military training.

2. Airborne School Location: Fort Benning, Georgia

Description: This school offers intense training in parachuting techniques. Upon completion, cadets earn the coveted Airborne wings. The program is rigorous, with a focus on physical fitness and mental toughness, preparing cadets for airborne operations.

3. Air Assault School Location: Various Army posts

Description: A 10-day course that teaches cadets how to conduct air assault operations, including rappelling from helicopters, sling load operations, and physical training. Graduates earn the Air Assault badge.

4. Cultural Understanding and Leadership Program (CULP) Location: Various international locations

Description: This program allows cadets to travel abroad to work with foreign militaries, engage in humanitarian missions, or gain cross-cultural experiences. It helps cadets develop global awareness and leadership skills in a diverse environment.

5. Mountain Warfare School Location: Jericho, Vermont

Description: A course that focuses on teaching cadets how to operate in mountainous and extreme cold-weather conditions. Cadets learn survival techniques, rock climbing, and how to lead troops in difficult terrain.

6. Internships and Special Assignments

Description: Some ROTC programs offer summer internships in various branches of the Army, including research roles in Army labs, medical assignments, or participation in specialized military training schools.

7. Ranger Challenge and Ranger School

Ranger Challenge: A competitive event held among ROTC programs across the nation that challenges cadets physically and mentally in tactics and problem-solving.

Ranger School (Optional): Although difficult to secure a slot, some ROTC cadets may have the opportunity to attend Ranger School, one of the most physically and mentally demanding leadership courses in the Army.

These summer programs are designed to build leadership skills, increase military proficiency, and prepare cadets for future roles as Army officers.

About Us:

Army ROTC (Reserve Officers' Training Corps) is a college program that prepares students to become officers in the U.S. Army. It combines academic education with military training, allowing students to pursue their degree while gaining leadership skills and military knowledge. Participants take military science courses, attend training exercises, and can also receive scholarships that help cover tuition and fees. Upon graduation, cadets are commissioned as second lieutenants in the Army, Army Reserve, or Army National Guard.

About Us:

Located in the vibrant city of Anderson, in the rapidly growing region of Upstate South Carolina, Anderson University is a selective, Christian, comprehensive university offering bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees on campus, online and at the University Center in Greenville. Students may choose from 50 major degree programs, 29 concentrations, 48 minors, 18 master's and doctoral degrees and 8 certification programs. Anderson University is among the fastest-growing private universities in the country, according to the U.S. Department of Education and the Chronicle of Higher Education Almanac. Increased enrollment only tells part of the story, however; the reason for it is Anderson's reputation as a premier institution of higher learning and status among the best regional universities in the South as recognized by both U.S. News & World Report and The Princeton Review. Further, U.S. News & World Report for 2023 named Anderson as one of the "Best Value" schools among regional universities in the South.
